LORNA G. SCHOFIELD
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Re: United States v. Robert Gonzalez
22-CR-207 (LGS)

Dear Judge Schofield:

My client Robert Gonzalez was released on bail at his initial appearance on March 25, 2022. Conditions set by the Magistrate Judge included pretrial supervision as directed by Pretrial Services, home detention, and location monitoring technology.

Mr. Gonzalez was employed at the time of his arrest and continues to be employed at a restaurant near where he is living in Middletown, New York. He has been in full compliance with Pretrial Services.

I write now to request that his "conditions be changed to eliminate home detention enforced by electronic monitoring. All other conditions to remain in full force including Pretrial supervision."

U.S. Pretrial Services Officer Leo Barrios consents to this request and supplied the language in quotations in the paragraph immediately above to me for submission to the Court.

A.U.S.A. Mathew Andrews has no objection to my request.

Respectfully submitted,

AVROM ROBIN
